Instructions:

- Fill out table A with your intended courses.
- Use the Course Equivalency Database to find approved courses.
- Consult with your study abroad and academic advisors to review your plan in Table A.
- Write courses not in the database for which you seek approval in Table B.
- Obtain course descriptions and syllabi for to send to relevant UPDs for approval.
- Transfer any new course approvals to Table A.
- Upload your completed Course Planning Form to your study abroad application.

Check here if your study abroad experience will fulfill the SAS Core CCO. To meet this requirement, your program must be 12 credits for semester study or 6 credits for summer. This does not apply to winter or embedded programs.

Course Equivalency Requests (Table B)

If a potential study abroad course is not on the Course Equivalency Database (CED) or part of a faculty-led program, request approval from the appropriate department Chair or Undergraduate Director. Bring the proposed course descriptions and/or syllabi and obtain a departmental signature for each course. After obtaining approval, enter information into Table A.
