

Withdrawal Form

After you have been accepted to the ROSE program and paid the required deposit(s), you are considered an enrolled participant in that program. By making such payment you are expressing your intention to participate in the ROSE program, you are acknowledging that the program fee deposit is refundable or rolled into your regular tuition bill if enrolling into the ROSE program or withdrawing to a Rutgers fully online semester, or Rutgers semester in New Jersey (if available) before January 19th, 2021, that the housing deposit is non-transferable and non-refundable after the dates listed below, and you are recognizing that you will be held responsible for some or all of the full program fee, even if ultimately you do not participate in the program, depending on when you formally withdraw from the program.

If you are considering withdrawing from the ROSE program for which you have already paid a program deposit, then review this policy and take the following steps:

1. Speak with a Rutgers Global ROSE advisor as well as your school advisor. We may be able to help you find a way to still participate, even if withdrawing seems inevitable.
2. Review the timelines below: Remember: program fee deposits are refundable up to January 19th if enrolling in a ROSE program, Rutgers fully online semester, or Rutgers semester in New Jersey if available. After January 19th, your participation in ROSE will be regarded as confirmed and program deposit will be non-refundable.
 - a. Housing deposits are non-refundable after December 21st, 2020 and are non-transferable.
3. If, after speaking with ROSE advisors and your school advisor you still intend to withdraw, then you must complete, sign, and submit the Withdrawal Form.

Withdrawals are not considered official and valid until a completed WITHDRAWAL FORM is emailed to the ROSE staff. Withdrawals will be effective on the date we receive your email with the completed and signed Withdrawal Form attached.
