

Give Thanks!

The International Friendship Program (IFP) invites you to participate in the Thanksgiving Dinner Program. The program provides the opportunity for international students & scholars to experience the Thanksgiving holiday, as well as to create an occasion for Rutgers and local community members to invite international guests into their homes.

To sign up as a Host, please complete the application form here.

To sign up as a Guest, please complete the application form here.