Who We Are and What We Do
What do the Deans do?

- General Help/Support
- Resource Connections
- Case Management
- Restorative Justice Practice Program

The food pantry is available for all Rutgers students! All you need is your Rutgers ID 🍎🍎🈯️.

It’s located at 39 Union Street and they’re open from 9am–4pm.
General Help/Support

- Extended absences due to illness 😷
- Emergency Issues
- Challenges with Professors 📚✏️
- General questions outside of academics
- Universal guidance
- Professor concerns about your student
Resource Connection

- Support in finding answers to questions
- Academic Advising
- Counseling
- RUPD
- Learning Centers
- Disability Services
- Financial Aid and Student Accounting
Case Management

• Financial Support
• Mental health/emotional support
• Coordination of university and community resources
• Critical incident management
Restorative Justice Practices Program

Alternative resolution services (mediation, restorative justice, etc.) for students

Students who utilize this program will be able to…

• Develop solutions to actions, harms, issues, and conflicts
• Feel empowered to use problem solving tools and strategies in the future
• Be able to take accountability and responsibility for actions, and come to an agreeable resolution with those who they are in conflict with
Across from New Brunswick Theological Seminary
Walk in hours every afternoon – stop on by!

88 College Ave on College Ave Campus
Contact us @ 848-932-2300 or deanofstudents@echo.rutgers.edu
Find us on social media!

@RUDeanlyMoment
@RUDeanOfStudents
Please look on our website for more information...

deanofstudents.rutgers.edu/
Thank you for your time...

Any Questions?