Global Consortium on Bigotry and Hate Inaugural Conference

BIGOTRY AND HATE IN THE UNITED STATES

April 25-27, 2019 | Rutgers University, Newark, U.S.

PRE-CONFERENCE EVENTS

TUESDAY, April 23
Indigenous Genocide in North America

Conference Kick-off Pre-Event
Plenary: “Genocidal Affect: Situating Hate in the Frame of the Indian Problem in North America”
Andrew Woolford, University of Manitoba
6:15-8:15 p.m. | Dana Room, 4th Floor, Dana Library

WEDNESDAY, April 24
Migration and Immigration

Pre-Conference Activity (on your own)
“Seeing America: 20th & 21st Century”
Newark Museum
https://www.newarkmuseum.org

On-going Exhibitions
Oral History Jukebox
Louis Armstrong Exhibition
“We Came and Stayed” Video Installation
Express Newark

Special Related Event
Tanner Lectures on Human Values
https://www.newark.rutgers.edu/events/tanner-lectures-human-values
Registration Required

2:30-3:50 p.m.  Rutgers-Newark Student Panel: “Sharing Stories of Migration and Immigration”
Express Newark

4:00 p.m.  Reception
Express Newark

5:00 p.m.  “African-American Movements and Migration Narratives”
A Conversation with Ayanna Mathis and Farah Jasmine Griffin
Express Newark

With special thanks to the Office of the Chancellor, Rutgers–Newark

In response to the rise of hate in the U.S. and abroad, CGHR is convening a global consortium that will look at local manifestations of hate in a diverse set of contexts. The inaugural conference, “Bigotry and Hate in the United States,” will be held at Rutgers on April 25-27, 2019. Consortium partners will subsequently hold conferences in Argentina, Bahrain, Canada, Norway, Paris, and South Africa, among other places.